Meeting was called to order by Faye Cable. Agenda items were accepted by all.

John Marriott Workshop – Oct. 2014 – Faye gave an up-date on e-mails and what the executive was looking at as far as details to the workshop. Executive will be discussing at next meeting and finalizing with John.

Meeting Schedules – Canada Winter Games Centre was booked for the 2nd. meeting April 17th. Topic is Ice and Snow. Faye ensured that the room was booked May 6th. at the Library for the next regular meeting.

Liz had booked the CWG Facility for the May 20th. assignment meeting – Water is the topic.

Faye and John gave an up-date on the Yukon Arts Centre Community Gallery Show. Ruth McCullough helped hang the show and it was very professionally done. There were a few loose ends to be finalized as the show was just hung on April 1. i.e., ensure correct names to correct photos and Bonnie still had to type up some cards. Opening and Reception planned for April 4th. Faye showed a few pictures of the show and those that saw the pictures were very impressed. Faye will try to pick up a guest book for the opening of the show. It was noted that members need to be available to pick up their photos on the 28th. The day the show comes down. More details will be sent re time.

No Other Business at this time.

Guest Jake Paleczny, Director of Programs and Education for the Yukon Wildlife Preserve gave a phenomenal presentation and it was well received.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:55 pm
