John Reeve chaired the meeting and called the meeting to order
Liz accepted the agenda and Dick seconded

Art Gallery show was well received and estimated 800 people went through. Suggestion made that another time we should have the show in the winter to reduce the glare.

Faye is organizing the fall workshop
We will be getting John Marriott late Oct 2014 and will have a field session at the game farm. Theme of the workshop will be wildlife photography

We are looking at a small increase in fees next season to cover the increased costs for rental for one week as we are only allowed one free session per month at the library

May 20 is the last regular meeting of the year.

There will be a BB mid June. Janet has volunteered her house.

Dyea trip 3rd weekend in June.

John presented the top images from the 2014 North Shore Challenge.
Janet Webster was our guest and presented pictures from her Asian tours.
