

November 2015 Newsletter

Looking Ahead

First up on the calendar is our Annual General Meeting on Tuesday,

November 3rd, 7pm at the library. A healthy executive is necessary to keep the club humming along, so please consider letting your name stand. If you have interest in helping to keep our website or Facebook page updated, creating content for newsletters, lining up future presenters for our weekly meetings or the fall workshop...well, let's just say we're ready for you.

The 2015/2016 Calendar may be downloaded here.

A special mid-month Celebration of Nature selection meeting will take place at the Canada Games on November 8 starting at 6pm.

All members are encouraged to submit up to TWO photographs which contain no traces of man (buildings, roads, fences, domesticated plants or animals, etc...).

- Format is JPEG in the sRGB colorspace.
- Pictures should be sized to maximum of 1050px high and 1400px wide.

- · Pictures must be titled.
- Categories are Birds; Mammals;
 General

The assignment theme for November is "Neglect". As much as Facebook or Instagram would have us believe we live in a bright and shiny world, the truth is many things around us do not receive the necessary care.

Where do you see examples of this? In your house, on your property, or on public lands? In animals, plants, or inanimate objects?

Photos will be presented on Wednesday November 18 at CGC.

*No dogs were neglected during the creation of this newsletter.

Click here for submission specifications. Click here for upcoming assignments.

Reflects

October was a busy month for the club, starting off with the Sherman Hines workshop on the 2, 3, 4. The theme of the workshop was "Expand Your Vision", and that certainly came to be during the Sunday practical exercises where we were challenged to identify numbers, letters, patterns and textures in our everyday surroundings. I am forever looking for a 2 or 5...

After a full weekend, a bit of R&R was required. In what I'm hoping will become a staple of the club, members met at Epic Pizza for a bit of socializing (and a bit of rock 'n' roll); the pints were cold and the pizza was hot! I hope you were able to make it out!

Finally, our photo assignment "The Colour...", where each photographer was to choose a single color and shoot multiple images around that theme. A sample may be seen below, but make sure you check our Facebook
Page and Website for much more!

"The Colour..."

©Peter Toth

©Walter Gutowski

©Sylke Baranski

©Norma Waddington

©Ed Jenni

"It's not what you look at that matters, it's what you see."

Henry David Thoreau

Exposure

This section is under development, but the intention is to capture something a little more in-depth. Perhaps some technical tips to consider during capture, or post processing tips in Lightroom/Photoshop. For now, I'll simply do a referal to a cool article on DIY Photography, "How Color Grading Your Photos Can Manipulate Viewers' Emotions."

Want to know more about the Whitehorse Photo Club? http://www.whitehorsephotoclub.ca or on Facebook

No longer want to receive these awesome, hand-crafted newsletters? Unsubscribe